Filed By The Court

07/20/20

Laura A. Austin
Clerk of Court
US Bankruptcy Court

NOTICE IS GIVEN THAT:

The initial notice in this case advised creditors that it was not necessary to file a proof of claim. However, since that notice was sent, assets have been recovered by the trustee. Therefore, creditors who wish to share in any distribution of funds must file a proof of claim with the clerk of the bankruptcy court within the timeframes outlined below:

For all creditors (except a Governmental Unit):
90 days after the mailing of this notice.

For a Governmental Unit:
180 days after the order for relief, or 90 days after the mailing of this notice, whichever is later.

Creditors who fail to file a proof of claim within the above timeframes may miss the opportunity to share in any distribution from the debtor's estate.

A proof of claim form may be filed electronically through the court's electronic proof of claim system (ePOC) found on the court's website at www.scb.uscourts.gov/epoc. A proof of claim form may also be filed by mailing a completed paper form to the attention of the Claims Clerk at the United States Bankruptcy Court, 1100 Laurel Street, Columbia, SC 29201. There is no filing fee for filing a proof of claim. Any creditor who has already filed a proof of claim need not file another proof of claim.
